WHAT WE'RE LOVING NOW

A Man Named Pearl

Directed by Scott Galloway and Brent Pierson
Recommended by Deyse Bravo-Rivera
SB470 .F79 M36 2008

A Man Named Pearl tells the inspiring story of self-taught topiary artist Pearl Fryar, whose unlikely journey to national prominence began with a bigoted remark. Since the film's release, it has won awards and has been screened throughout the country.

The Rider: A Cycling Classic by the Author of The Vanishing and The Cave

Written by Tim Krabbé & Sam Garrett
Recommended by Katie McGrath
PT588I.2I.R26 R44I3 2003

What goes on in the mind of an athlete? Why do they do it?

This touchstone of cycling literature begins to answer these questions as it follows one rider over the course of five hours as he engages in the protracted struggle, mental as much as physical, of an amateur biker race in a sleepy corner of southern France, and in so doing captures, at very short length, the entirety of the cycling experience (Bicycling Magazine, Oct 2017).

FROM THE VAULT

The Campus Favorites cookbook is part of the Domestic Science and Cookery Collection at McKee Library.
